

BRISTOL TOWNSHIP

Office of the Fire Marshal / Emergency Management

Attention Residents,

Does someone living within your home require the assistance of others to evacuate should there be an emergency within your home? If so, the Office of the Fire Marshal & Emergency Management would like to hear from you. Some examples of persons requiring the assistance of others include; persons who are bedridden, wheelchair bound, blind, deaf, or have cognitive or developmental disorders.

Once received by this office, the information you provide will be forwarded to the Bucks County 9-1-1 center for entry in to the computer data base. The 9-1-1 center will in turn relay this information to emergency responders should you call 9-1-1.

Should you wish to have this information entered in to the 9-1-1 computer system, the following information is needed: address, home phone number, age, gender, type of disability (i.e...bedridden, wheelchair bound, cognitive/developmental disorder), and his/her bedroom location within residence (i.e...2nd fl, back-left bedroom).

This information can be submitted via email to kdippolito@bristoltownship.org, or by contacting the fire marshal's office by phone at 215-785-0500.

Sincerely,

Kevin T. Dippolito, CFEI
Emergency Management Director / Fire Marshal
Bristol Township
